

Kelly R. Berg is a partner of Tuthill & Hughes LLP, a boutique law firm in Denver specializing in nonprofit law and estate and wealth transfer planning. Kelly regularly serves in the capacity of outside tax and corporate counsel for nonprofit organizations, including public charities, private foundations, community foundations, institutional foundations, and college and university foundations. Her areas of expertise include governance, planned giving, UPMIFA, unrelated business income tax, intermediate sanctions, self-dealing, donor advised funds and supporting organizations. In addition, she regularly advises individuals, estates and trusts with respect to tax and fiduciary issues.